Subject: Kebab van outside royal Surrey hospital

Follow Up Flag: Follow up
Flag Status: Completed

Hi, I am writing to note my concern of a second kebab van parked outside the Royal Surrey Hospital in Guildford. There is one van on this road already and have been using it for some time. Since the new van has come along there has been nothing but trouble. I live in round hill way not to far away and have noticed a lot more rubbish/waste around that area, the original van (the bigger one) seems to have correct procedure in place by supplying the most basic of facilities such as a bin! The new van (the smaller one) does need seem to have one from when I last looked. The noise levels in the late evening are also very irritable.

I think in this area only 1 van is necessary and the new van that has popped up should be moved to another location in Guildford where another area could benefit from this fast food luxury.

I hope you voice my concerns and look forward to your reply.

Best Regards

Allan Ecclefield

Dear Mr Kilic,

Thank you for your email bringing this to our attention.

For your information, the notice has already been checked twice, on 27th May and 3rd June 2015. On both occasions the notice was clearly displayed on Egerton Road, although there was an error noted on the first visit. This led to the consultation period being re-started giving all parties additional time to comment on the application.

If the notice was not in place on 7th June (unfortunately this is not clear from your photograph) it is possible that another party has removed the notice.

I have reminded the applicant that they need to replace the notice if someone removes it, and will undertake a further random check before the consultation ends to ensure the notice is still in place.

After the further random check, we will be in a position to make a decision regarding re-starting the consultation, if this is considered appropriate to the circumstances.
