

Appendix 1: NPPG extract – Plan Making

(Available at: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/plan-making#plan-reviews>)

What can authorities consider when determining whether a plan or policies within a plan should be updated?

The authority can consider information such as (but not exclusively):

- conformity with national planning policy;
- changes to local circumstances; such as a change in Local Housing Need;
- their Housing Delivery Test performance;
- whether the authority can demonstrate a 5 year supply of deliverable sites for housing;
- whether issues have arisen that may impact on the deliverability of key site allocations;
- their appeals performance;
- success of policies against indicators in the Development Plan as set out in their Authority Monitoring Report;
- the impact of changes to higher tier plans;
- plan-making activity by other authorities, such as whether they have identified that they are unable to meet all their housing need;
- significant economic changes that may impact on viability.; and
- whether any new social, environmental or economic priorities may have arisen.
