

GUILDFORD BOROUGH COUNCIL - RESPONSIBILITY FOR FUNCTIONS

The Local Authorities (Functions and Responsibilities) (England) Regulations 2000 (as amended) require that certain parts of the structure of the Council must be responsible for certain decisions. The Regulations specify:

- (a) functions which are not to be the responsibility of the Council's Executive;
- (b) functions which may but need not be the responsibility of the Executive ("local choice functions"); and
- (c) functions which are to some extent the responsibility of the Executive.

All other functions not so specified are to be the responsibility of the Executive.

Responsibility for Council (Non Executive) Functions

These functions, which are listed in Schedule 1 to the Local Authorities (Functions and Responsibilities) (England) Regulations 2000 (as amended), may not be the responsibility of the Council's Executive. Appendix I identifies these functions and indicates where responsibility lies within the Council. In accordance with legislation, certain decisions on these matters must be taken by the full Council, whilst others may be taken by the full Council, a committee appointed by the Council, officers, or jointly with other bodies under separate joint arrangements, provided that they are within the budget and policy framework approved by the full Council.

Responsibility for Local Choice Functions

Appendix II to this part of the Constitution sets out which "local choice functions" are the responsibility of the Council and/or its committees and which are the responsibility of the Executive.

Responsibility for Executive Functions

"Executive functions" are all the statutory functions of the Borough Council except those listed or referred to in Appendices I and II. In accordance with the Local Government Act 2000, decisions on these matters may be taken by the Leader, the Executive collectively, an individual lead councillor, committee of the Executive, individual local ward councillors, officers or jointly with other bodies under separate joint arrangements, provided that they are within the budget and policy framework approved by the full Council.

Joint Responsibility for certain Council (Non-Executive) and Executive Functions

The Council's Taxi and Private Hire enforcement powers have been delegated jointly to the ten other licensing authorities in Surrey, without prejudice to the Council's ability to exercise those powers itself within the Borough.

The Council has also entered into collaborative working arrangements with Waverley Borough Council resulting in the creation of a single joint management board with Waverley Borough Council, comprised of statutory officers (Head of Paid Service; Chief Finance Officer; Monitoring Officer), joint strategic directors and joint executive heads of service.

Responsibilities Delegated to Officers

The extent to which the functions described above have been delegated to officers is shown in the Council's scheme of delegation in this Part of the Constitution.

PART 3 – RESPONSIBILITY FOR FUNCTIONS

The Council's companies

Formatted: Font: Bold

Where the Council uses the enabling legislation to create its own companies, either as the sole or as a joint owner, the broad terms of the objects of each Council company will be recorded in its Articles of Association, while its Shareholder Agreement will set out more detailed operational arrangements and the matters which are reserved for determination by the Council as the shareholder (known as 'reserved matters'). In general, these reserved matters will be key structural and high-level strategic matters rather than the "day-to-day" business and operations of the company, which shall be the responsibility of the Company Directors.

Each Council-owned Company is an independent legal entity which is entirely separate from the Council. The Company will have its own identity and responsibilities. A Council-owned company is required to comply with Company law, its Articles of Association and its Shareholder Agreement. It is not governed by the Council's Constitution.

The responsibility to represent the Council as shareholder of each Company is an executive function. The Leader of the Council may therefore determine the nature of such representation, currently operated through the Executive Shareholder and Trustee Committee.

The Executive Shareholder and Trustee Committee will meet with the Company's Directors and representatives at least twice annually to monitor the Company's finances, performance and progress against business plan and decide any matters falling within its reserved matters. It will protect the Council's interests and investments in the Company and determine the future direction of the Company. The Council's Chief Finance Officer and Monitoring Officer, or their Deputies, will act as advisors to the Executive Shareholder and Trustee Committee. The Chief Executive, or a Strategic Director nominated by the Chief Executive, will advise the Executive Shareholder and Trustee Committee on matters of Policy.

The activities of the Executive Shareholder and Trustee Committee will be subject to consideration by the Council's Overview & Scrutiny Resources Committee. The Executive Shareholder and Trustee Committee and Overview & Scrutiny Resources Committee may meet separately or simultaneously.

The appointment of Directors to the Board of a Company is the responsibility of the shareholder and appointments will form part of the reserved matters. The Directors hold a fiduciary duty to their Company, but at the same time are also accountable to the shareholder, and as such owe duties to both the Council and the Company.

The Council and its Companies may choose to contract with each other as separate entities. For example, the Council may appoint a Company as its supplier of certain services, while a Company may appoint the Council to supply its administrative services, including professional legal and financial services. Advice should be taken on a case by case basis as to the need to comply with procurement legislation and subsidy control issues, but in all cases the Council will need to ensure it meets its duties as a best value authority. Where contracting takes place, the Council will have a formal agreement in place with the Company setting out the terms of the agreed service levels and a procedure for dispute resolution.

As the Council and its Companies are separate legal entities, care must be taken to ensure that conflicts of interest are avoided. When Council officers are asked to provide advice in a situation where the interests of the Council and the Company are not entirely aligned, individual Officers should be assigned to advise or represent either the Council (as shareholder) or the Company, but should not act for both. The Joint Chief Executive or Joint Strategic Directors can authorise officers to act for one or other party, where a conflict of interest may arise.
